Looking for a rewarding,
well-paying career with benefits?

Interested in working in a career where you can help others and make a difference in the community?

Public safety dispatching is a unique and exciting career, which promises both challenges and rewards for motivated individuals. Public safety dispatchers perform a variety of duties in various public safety fields, including law enforcement, fire, medical, humane, and civil services.

Several agencies have a critical need to staff vacant positions. Many do not require any experience.

Attend and speak to dispatch recruiters from the following agencies*:

- California Highway Patrol
- El Cajon Police Department
- National City Police Department
- San Diego County Sheriff's Office
- San Diego Community College District Police Department
- San Diego Fire – Rescue
- North County Dispatch JPA
- Escondido Police Department

**Individual agency participation subject to change*

NOTE TO JOB SEEKERS: Many public safety agencies conduct criminal background checks, truth verification examinations (lie detector tests), and psychological screenings as part of their hiring requirements. Minimum requirements vary between different agencies. Candidates are encouraged to speak with agency representatives about minimum qualifications, hiring processes, and specific employment requirements.
